

THE LAYLOW

AUTOGRAPH COLLECTION®
HOTELS

FACT SHEET

Overview

- The Laylow, Autograph Collection is a 251-room hotel that blends midcentury modernism with vintage Hawaii charm.
- The property, located at 2299 Kuhio Avenue, underwent an extensive $60 million renovation.
- The Laylow is located next to the newly redeveloped International Market Place, home to sought-after retailers and world-class eateries.
- The Laylow is the first Oahu hotel to join the Autograph Collection Hotels, Marriott International's distinguished portfolio of more than 100 independent hotels around the world that are exactly like nothing else.

Accommodations

- The hotel includes 186 guest rooms and 65 suites – all with king beds and private lanais.
- Guest rooms and public areas feature custom-made and salvaged furniture inspired by midcentury modern classics.
- Ho'okipa Floors, located on floors 15 and 16, offer guests exclusive access to complimentary upgrades including the following:
 - Pastries, fresh fruit, local snacks, breakfast beverages, drinks
 - Premium bath and body refreshers and rejuvenators
 - Two beach mats
 - Makai (ocean) and mauka (mountain) views
 - Early check-ins based on availability
 - Guaranteed late check-outs at noon
- Room rates start at $229 per night.

Design

- Creative and branding agency Official Mfg. Co. (OMFGCO) of Portland, Ore., created The Laylow's distinct brand ethos and identity. Works by midcentury visionaries informed the aesthetic of the guestrooms, suites and public spaces.
- The Laylow's signature monstera leaf wallpaper was designed by OMFGCO and inspired by vintage bark cloth patterns.
- Vintage furnishings from the period were both refurbished and used as inspiration for newly created pieces to give the hotel a distinct sense of place.
- In the lobby, a stunning terracotta breezeblock wall, sculpted in graphic patterns reminiscent of Hawaiian tapa and open to the trade winds, preserves the flow of air and energy throughout the space.

Dining

- Hideout is The Laylow's signature restaurant that serves reimagined Pacific Rim classics made with the freshest ingredients from the ocean and local farms.

- Executive Chef Bryan Byard merges his love of art and food to create edible masterpieces such as coconut curry seafood stew with Kauai prawns and fresh fish, Kalua pork and Wagyu burgers, and kiawe smoked chicken in Hawaiian barbeque sauce and pork belly vinaigrette.

-more-

-2-

- Cocktails and Hawaii craft beer are served at an open-air terrace bar that overlooks Kuhio Avenue.
- Island musicians perform nightly.
- Stumptown Coffee Roasters of Portland, Ore., is The Laylow's exclusive coffee supplier.
- Guests can order picnic coolers to enjoy their Hideout favorites on the go.

Amenities

- A tension-edged saltwater pool, encased in a deck of Ipe (a Brazilian hardwood), is bordered by lush bamboo and tropical foliage. The intimate setting is dotted with lounge chairs and private cabanas with dreamy daybeds.
- Surf nostalgia photography books, art tomes and authentic ukuleles are in each guest room.
- Rooms feature USB and electrical outlets, complimentary Wi-Fi and 50-inch LED televisions powered by the Enseo entertainment platform with device-to-TV streaming services including Netflix, Hulu and Pandora.
- Maak Lab, a Portland-based scent and apothecary company, created an exclusive collection of in-room bath and beauty products that capture the essence of the Pacific Ocean.
- At check-in, guests are greeted with chilled local pineapple bites and oshibori (chilled towels) offering instant refreshment to weary travelers.
- Weekly guest activities include yoga, meditation, tai chi and ukulele lessons.
- The 24/7 fitness studio includes cardiovascular exercise equipment and free weights.
- The Laylow is a pet-friendly, smoke-free hotel.

###